

Johndrow Wealth Management, Connecticut Family Business Awards Finalists

Farmington, Connecticut (October 17, 2018)— Today Johndrow Wealth Management (a division of Farmington River Financial Group[®]) a leading Connecticut financial services firm, was celebrated as a 2018 Connecticut Family Business Awards Finalist.

The entire Johndrow Wealth team was honored at a dinner and awards ceremony hosted by the Hartford Business Journal at the Farmington Gardens. The guest speaker was a Connecticut's own, Karen Munson, owner of a family business, Munson's Chocolates.

Johndrow Wealth thanks our clients and strategic partners for continuing to allow us to serve you with the highest standards. We see you all as part of the Johndrow Wealth family and believe this recognition is as much yours as it is ours. Cheers to you!

The Connecticut Family Business Awards “honor companies that had particularly strong successes over the last 12 months, completing expansions, growing in the marketplace, fulfilling major projects and breaking new ground in local and state business community.” Johndrow Wealth feels humbled to be included as a finalist with so many other inspiring Connecticut family businesses.

Congratulations to all the winners!

To read more about the award, read the online version of the Hartford Business Journal by clicking here.

